

Acceptance of applicants has begun

Open call

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

IN CULTURAL HERITAGE CONSERVATION

Multispectral imaging and 3D photogrammetric condition monitoring in wall painting conservation

Gelati Monastery Complex,
Imereti, Georgia

Submission deadline:
September 10th, 2024

Contact: sagaradzemariam@gmail.com
nuca.koberidze@gmail.com

WORKSHOP

What to expect?

- Developing 3D photogrammetric imaging skills for monitoring cultural heritage monuments.
- Developing multispectral imaging skills for the non-invasive investigation of the technology and condition of paintings.
- Familiarizing with the programming and processing of multispectral imaging (MSI) and 3D photogrammetric images.
- Contributing to the wall painting conservation research program at the Gelati Monastery Complex.

Workshop Programme: Click here

Workshop mentors:

Wendy Rose (GCI Consultant), Joshua Hill (National Gallery, London), Andres Uueni (EKA)

Workshop language: English

Location: Gelati Monastery Complex

Date: 03 – 06 / 10 / 2024

LEPL INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION CENTER OF GEORGIA

გელათის რეაბილიტაციის კომიტეტი
GELATI REHABILITATION COMMITTEE

EKA Eesti
Kunstiakadeemia

01

Who can apply?

- ✓ Citizens of Georgia working or studying in the cultural Heritage conservation field
- ✓ Students of Estonian Academy of Art studying cultural heritage and conservation programme

03

Funding

- ✓ For Georgian applicants' transportation and living expenses (hotel, food) are fully covered by IEC
- ✓ EKA students: please contact maris.veeremae@artun.ee

02

Requirements:

- CV in English
- Short motivation letter in English
- Imaging skills and basic knowledge of photography
- Computer skills
- English (B2, C1)
- Participants required to bring a personal laptop for data processing using software provided in the workshop.

Submission deadline: 10/09/2024

Email: sagaradzemariam@gmail.com
nuca.koberidze@gmail.com